Nearly all the Ward Men to Go on Patrol in Strange Districts - McLanghlia Gets the Tenderiols and Brogan Goes from Mercer Street to the Uttermost Parts of Kingsbridge - Never Such a Shake-up Before in the Municipal Police - The Health Board Also Contributes to the Disturbance - Santtary Superintendent Coving and Counsel Prentice Retired and Henlaced and Other Changes Made.

Every police Captain in New York city except one was transferred yesterday, and almost all the ward detectives and special-duty men were remanded to patrol duty. The rank and file were reminded rather roughly that the gentle rule of Superintendent Murray is over. The single exception among the Captains is Capt. Fibert O. Smith, who was sent six weeks ago to command the new Sixty-eighth street precinct. As if to rub it in to the ward detectsign them to duty in precints other than those in which they had been detailed. Two Sergeants, a roundsman, and six patrolmen, who ave been enjoying easy berths at the Central office are to report for precinct duty as soon as Superintendent Byrnes finds time to assign them. No such shake up has taken place is the department before, and policemen of all ranks are holding up their hands in wonder, and asking "What next?"

The transfer of the Captains sends Capt. Alsire to the steamboat squad, vacant since Capt. Senmittberger was transferred to East Sixty-seventh street, and leaves the City Hall squad without a Captain. Commissioner Maclean has the power to fill the vacancy, but he is apparently dissatisfied with the eligible list is arparently dissatisfied with the eligible list seet in three months ago, and has asked the tril Service Ford for a new list.

The action of the Commissioners in reducing the special duty men to the ranks is as smalleant as the transfer of the Captains when the instructions given to the Superintendent are considered, "to assign them to parted duty in precincts other than those in which they have served on special duty." The general belief appears to be that the rank of the met detective is to be abolished and that all the trives are to be members of the Central of force and detailed to duty in the pre-

CAPT. M'LAUGHAN IN THE TENDERLOIN.

CAPT. M'LAUGHIAN IN THE TENDERLOIN.

It is no secret that Superintendent Eyrnes thinks very highly of his old detective, Capt. Melaughlin, and his appointment to the Tenderloin precinct is looked upon as indicating one of two things. Either he is not a candidate for the vasant Inspectorship and the important command has been given to him in deference to the Superintendent's wishes or he is to be made Inspector shortly and leave the Tenderioin vacant for Commissioner Martin, who has the next making of a Captain to fill. After Commissioner Martine the Tenderioin to the transfers he made this mother:

the action of the Commissioners, the motion was lost.

The full Board voted to assign to duty Patroinen F.C. Boeckel and Robert O'Raw, who were dismissed from the department on charges and teinstated on technicalities by the fourt of Appeals and the General Term of the Surrema Court. President Martin suggested that the Corporation Counsel be asked to assign a member of his staff to prepare the cases against delinquent policemen charged with scrous offeness so that the indigments of the Commissioners will not be overruled on technicalities. The Chairman of the Committee on Discipline was authorized to prepare a new schedule of punishments to fit breaches of police regulations.

WHO WILL BE INSPECTOR?

May 31 was chosen for the annual parade. The chief clork was directed tonsk the Civil Service Board for an eligible list from which the Commissioners may choose a new Inspector. Although the competition is nominally open to all Captains, only those who obtain the consent of the Superintendent and of the Commissioners may compete. All the Captains who wish to try for the prize must send their names to the Superintendent with a request that they be allowed to stand examination for promotion. The names approved by the Superintendent are sent to the Folice Board, and the names approved by the Superintendent are sent to the Folice Board, and the names approved by the Board go to the civil service examiners. From the three who rank highest after the examination the Board may choose the Inspector. If none is considered suitable a fresh eligible hist may be called for, and so on until the right man's name is on the list. The name of the lucky Captain will probably be announced at Friday's meeting of the Board.

Patroline Hobert Irwin and Julius A. Brookline were relified under the twenty years' nervice rule on pensions of $1000 a year, and Doorman Otis B. Coiby, although he has served not sent to the Mulberry street station July 1, 1887.

Roberts, Dr. Edson's successor, will get $3,000 a year.

Dr. Ewing, whom Dr. Edson succeeds, had been Sanitary Superintendent two years. Before he was appointed to that office he was for years an inspector. Nine years ago Col. Prendice was made counsel to the Board. Mr. Steinert, who succeeds him, is a member of the Tanmany General Committee. Twentieth District. Dr. Nagle, the new Chief of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, held that office formerly, but Dr. Tracy, whom he now succeeds, displaced him. For two years Dr. Percival has been resident physician at Riverside Hospital. Dr. Roberts was for a long time Dr. Edson's assistant in the Bureau of Contagious Diseases.

After the meeting President Wilson said to the reporters:

After the meeting President Wijson said to the reporters:

"The Board requested every resignation that was handed in. We asked for Dr. Edson's because we wanted to promote him. The others, we believed, were necessary in order to increase the efficiency of the service. The recent charges against Dr. Persival in regard to his treatment of typius fever patients at Piverside Hosylin land nothing to do with our determination to ask for his resignation. At the investigation of the charges brought against him the board exencated him. We asked him to resign because we believed that we could improve the state of affairs at the hosylind Dr. appointing some one else. We asked for the resignations of Drs. Ewing and Tracy and Col. Prontice because we thought the changes we have made in their departments were desirable. The Board do not wish it to be understood that they reflect or any of these gentlemen by asking for their resignations."

In his letter to the Board Dr. Percival said that he tpost he held was one of grave responsibility, that the salary be received, $1,500 a year, was too small, and that there was little or no chance of primotion. For these reasons, he said, he offered his resignation.

Just before the Health Board's meeting Kilhen Van Reasschaer, representing the United Charities Society; Dr. Heary Urampton, Academy of Medicine; Dr. Ross, the Sanitary Aid Society, and Mr. Irvin, the City Missions Society, asked the Board to declare the station house lodgings a nuisance. A BRILLIANT CEREMONY FOR COMMIS SIONER GILROY'S DAUGHTER.

trebbishop Corrigan Makes Her the Wife of Michael J. Mulqueen-Eluborate Must cal Service-Miss Cintre Condert and Lieut, Bellinger Married in Colvary Church-Other Easter Weddings.

The marriage of Miss Mary Agnes Gilroy, the eldest daughter of Commissioner of Pub-lic Works Thomas F. Gilroy, and Mr. Michael J. Mulqueen, was solemnized at noon yester-day in St. Patrick's Cathedral on Fifth avenue Archbishop Corrigan, who married the couple was assisted by the Rev. John Keoghan, the rector of the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle, in West 115th street, which the bride's family attend. At 8 o'clock in the morning the bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Gilroy, and the members of the bridal party were present at the mass celebrated in St. Thomas's Church and received communion. Because o this there was no nuptial mass at the Cathedral, so when the Archbishop pronounced the ords which made the young people man and wife the ceremony ended.

The number of invitations issued to the Cathedral was limited only by the capacity of he church to accommodate the guests. The day being warm and clear those with invitation cards began to assemble at the main entrance before 10:30 o'clock. The organist, Mr. William Pecher, had arranged an attractive musical programme, which was rendered while the company were waiting. There were the "Tannhäuser" march, Braga's "Angels' Serenade," sung by the soprano, Miss Hilke, with violin, harp, and organ accompaniment, a meditation for the harp, violin, and organ, Gounod's "Ave Maria," for harp, violin, and organ. Mr. Wizzek was the violinist, and Mr. Cheshire played the harp.

The Cathedral, garnished in the beautiful decorations of Easter, was brilliantly lighted. hundreds of candles burning on the grand altar and inside of the chancel railing, besides many gas iels. The four smaller altars were also decerated. Many of the costumes were extremely rich and handsome, and the innumerable brightly colored spring bonnets made the scene conspicuously brilliant and pleasing to the eye.

It was several minutes past noon when the bridal party reached the church, and as their coming was announced by the sudden rising of almost the entire congregation, the Archhishop, preceded by a long procession of priests and acolytes with lighted candles. emerged from the vestry and passed slowly around the front of the high altar, where he bent his knee in prayer. The bridal procession, having formed at the main entrance, to the strains of the bridal chorus from "Lo hengrin" moved up the aisle in the following

Then came the little sister of the iride, Clare, in a pretty dress of white silk muslim, and atter her the four bridesmads; Miss Elizabeth Griffin, Miss Jenny Blair, Aliss Mamfe Blessing, and Miss Marie McCarty, all attired in yellow crepe de Chine, with shell trimmings around the bottom of the skirt and covered with white embroidered lisse and Louis XVI. coats. Next walked the naid of honor, Miss Frances Gilroy, in a costume similar to those worn by the bridesmadis, and, like them, wearing a large hat of Legborn trimmed with daisles and ribbons and carrying a sliver horn filled with flowers.

In the rear came the bride with her father. She was in a gown of white satin made with full court train, the bottom of the skirt being area aged in folds, in each of which were small clusters of crange blossoms. The veil of point and duchesse lace was wern off the face and was caught high up on the sides with a number of smail pearl and diamond pins. A single diamond star heid the veil in place on the front of the cuffure. The other ornaments worn by the bride were a set of diamond earrings, a present from Mr. Giroy, and a bracelet of diamonds, a gift from the irdercoom. Sine carried a large bouquet of white orchids and lilaes. The bridesmads received from the bride hundsome daisy pins set with diamonds while the ushers wore in their white cravate double heart pins of gold set with a single diamond.

After the benediction Mr. and Mrs. Mulqueen drove to the residence of the bride's father. 7 West 121st street, where a breakfast for the bridal party only was servod. A CHOICE REPUBLICAN ROW. The Sharpe Men Have Things Their Own Way-A Bott in Ulater. KINGSTON, April 19. -One of the most excit ing political Conventions held here in years occurred this afternoon. It was a Republican County Convention called to select ten dele gates to the Congress Convention. Corporation Counsel Hasbrouck, Chairman of the County Central Committee, called the Convention to order, and when the roll of delegates was read it was evident that the Sharpe faction, which has hold of the Administration end of the string, was largely in the majority. Notwithstanding this fact, his opponents were bent on mischief. Chairman Hasbrouck, who is the leader of the opposition faction, attempted to throttle

the majority at the outset by securing exAssemblyman C. Meech Woolsey of Marlborough to preside, but it would not work, and a substitute offered by S. B. Sharpe, a son of Appraiser Sharpe, naming Counsellor Newcombe as Chairman was carried.

It was then moved that the Chairman name the Congress delegates. If a dynamite cartridge had exploded in the hall it could scarcely have produced more chaos. The resolution was opposed in heated speeches by Messrs.
Hasbrouck and Woolsey. The former was anxious to assertain whether there were any liepublicans in Ulster county fit to go to the National Convention or hold office excent Gen.
Sharpe. Assemblyman Weolsey alluded to the latter factional lights between the Sharps and Coykendall wings of the party in the past, and said that to-day's proceedings were evidence that they were to be renewed. The motion, however, prevailed, and Sharpe delegates were amointed.

Another bomb burst when a motion was the majority at the outset by securing ex-tion, however, prevailed, and Sharpe delegates were appointed.

Another homb burst when a motion was made that the Chair name a committee of five to select the County Central Committee to conduct the Presidential campaign. Mr. Hasbrouck asserted that to-day's Convention had no such power delegated to it, nor was there any precedent for it. If such action was taken he would resist it by proceedings in court if necessary, and as the present Chairman of the County Committee he would not be outsted, nor permit his friends to be treated in such a manner. If it was fight they wanted he would widen the breach that at present existed between the warring factions.

Notwithstanding these throats the motion provided and the committee was appointed. A lively tilt took place between Postmaster Wolven of this city and William M. Hayes, his predecessor, and secretary of the County Central Committee. The Hasbrouck faction then withdrew from the Convention, and there is fun ahead.

VOORHEES AT INDIANAPOLIS.

The Anti-Cleveland Men Expect Him to Lead Them in the State Convention,

INDIANAPOLIS. April 19.-Senator Voorhoes arrived to-day, and the Gray and anti-Cleveland interests are expecting him to manage their campaign in the State Convention. Senator Turple and Congressman Bynum will arrive on the late train. The Cleveland men are claiming Turple, and the opposition think he is for Gray. As he has been agreed upon as he is for Gray. As he has been agreed upon as permanent Chairman of the Convention, his preference is an important consideration.

The Presidential preference question is the all-absorbing topic to-night. The anti-Cleveland element seems satisfied with the four delegates at large agreed upon at the conference last week, as there is only one-out-and out Cleveland representative among them; but the Cleveland faction is doing considerable kicking, and vow that four other delegates must be selected, who will be definitely instructed to support Mr. Cleveland at the Chicago Convention.

instructed to support Mr. Cleveland at the Chicago Convention.

The Convention will be comprised of about 1,390 delegates and not quite half of them have as yet arrived so that it is impossible to say how they stand on the Presidency; buf, as many counties have instructed for Gray or have been silent as to Cleveland the action of the Convention is not rendily foreshadowed. That action will depend largely up n the result of the meetings of the threen-Congress district conventions, which will meet here Wednesday night, and which will select twenty-six delegates to the Chicago Convention, who, with the four delegates at large to be determined by the Convention on Thursday, will make up the State's full complement. The memination for Governor largely hinges on this action. If it is overwhelmingly Cleveland then Mr. Shanklin hopes to win, but the three other candilates say they will divide the three other candidates say they will divide the Cleveland vote with him

THIR I EEN DELEGATES FOR HILL. Not Every Massachusetts Man Favors the

New Benrond, April 19.-The last Congress district in Massachusetts, the Thirteenth, has made its choice of delegates to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, and the same fight which has characterized nearly all the conventions in the various districts was a feature of this one. The Cleveland faction had conventions in the various districts was a feature of this one. The Cleveland faction had control of the machinery and elected the delegates, but in the Convention there was a red-hot fight against Clevelandism, and the closeness of the yete showed that the selection of Cleveland delegates by no means represents the sentiment of the district. The delegates selected were Henry C. Tinteber of Yarmouth and Mayor John W. Coughlin of Fall River.

While Cleveland has secured two delegates from the Thirteenth district, his position in Massachuetts is not improved in a tioleast. Two delegates from other districts, who were counted as strong Cleveland supporters, have announced their opposition to his renomination. J. J. Curran of Holyoke, in the First district, and Dr. W. E. Mellen of Chicopee, in the Second district, have been enrolled among the disciples of the Chimant and were elected as such after considerable opposition. But it seems that Dr. Mellen has been the controlling spirit of an active Hill club for a few months past, and, while he may vote for Cleveland on the first ballot, he will use his influence for Senator Hill. James C Keefe, who is the recognized leader of the Democracy in the Connecticut Valley, says that thirteen of the district delegates from Massachusetts will favor the nomination of David B, Hill.

LOGAN AND DEMING FALL OUT. One Mugwamp Pariner Gets an Injunction Against the Other,

Horace E. Deming of Mugwump fame has obtained an injunction from Justice Lawrence to prevent his law partner, Walter S. Logan Mugwump, from disposing of the assets of the firm of Deming & Logan. The partnership expires on May 1, and last November Mr.

expires on May 1, and last November Mr.
Logan gave six months' notice that he did not wish to continue it after Jiny 1. Since that time there has been frection.

Mr. Logan says that the greater part of the firm's business was obtained by him and that he brought into the firm a large number of personal clients. Mr. Logan said he was tired of dividing the profits equally. About $200,000 in securities belonging to Mr. Logan says that Mr. Demiag insists that the firm's fees for legal work done will practically absorb those securities. Mr. Logan says he wants the securities turned over to their owners.

"Mr. Demiag looks on those securities as the assets of the firm." said Mr. Logan, "while, as a realize of fact, they are not our property at all."

Mr. Deming refused to discuss his partnership troubles.
